

Qualification

Exchange students who plan to study in the fall semester should apply for scholarships to the Academy by May 31 of the corresponding year; Those who plan to study in the spring semester should apply for scholarships to the Academy by November 31 of the previous corresponding year. Overdue applications will not be accepted.

- International students enrolled at an overseas university that has signed a cooperation agreement with the Academy or NCKU and fits either type of the following short-term activities (Students from mainland China are not eligible.)
- Who are engaging in a research internship program under the advisership of a full-time faculty member of a program of the Academy or an NCKU full-time faculty member jointly appointed by a program of the Academy
- Who are approved by a program of the Academy to study in an exchange program under the cooperation agreement

Exchange students-Maximum of one year

- ◆ Doctoral students: A monthly scholarship of NT$20,000
- ◆ Master students: A monthly scholarship of NT$10,000

Research interns-one to six months, which can't be divided or extended

- ◆ Doctoral students: A monthly scholarship of NT$15,000
- ◆ Master students: A monthly scholarship of NT$7,000

Award period and amount

Scholarship Application

Two months before the internship

Submit the following materials

- Application form
- Basic personal information form for foreign students
- Passport copy
- Proof that the student is enrolled and a internship plan meets the course or graduation requirements.

Submit to: Host Program Office

One and a half months before the internship

After initial review by the host program, submit to the Office of Academic & Student Affairs

Decision made by the Dean

Internship Report

The Academy will forward the application to the Office of International Affairs/Division of Study Abroad of the university

One month before the
internship

NCKU will report to the Ministry of Education