Note:

- Master scholarship recipients who receive an average grade of 80 or more in both the first and second semesters of the current academic year shall get recommended by their advisors and program directors for scholarship renewals, which shall be approved by the Academy Affairs Council.
For the average grade requirement set for the current academic year in the preceding paragraph, the other semester's grade shall be eligible for those scholarship recipients who have no grade in any semester of the current academic year.
Those who have no grades in the current year should instead provide materials of outstanding academic achievements in the current year (such as published or accepted journal articles, flagship conference paper, invention patents, outstanding performances recognized by the Academy Affairs Council.) to apply for scholarship renewals.
Applicants who are not approved for renewal in any academic year will not be disqualified, and those who meet the renewal standards in the first paragraph after one academic year can apply for renewal.
(Article 11 of the Enforcement Directions)

(Article 12 of the Enforcement Directions)

3. Please attach the supporting documents, such as: □ the original or digital transcript of the two semesters □ other relevant materials of outstanding academic achievements; the students can query their grades for a semester in the NCKU system of the Office of Academic Affairs about 3 weeks after the final exam ends. Upon the scholarship expiration, the awardees shall apply promptly for the latest transcripts and proceed with this renewal review.
4. The program shall finish this review within 2 weeks after receipt of the application; the list of recommended candidates with the program's approval for applying for renewal will be sent for the Academy Affairs Council's review in September or February of each year. The administrative unit of the Academy will process the scholarship issuance according to the renewal list approved by the Academy Affairs Council for the renewal period that follows. The results of the review will be notified individually after the Academy Affairs Council.
